

Pastor of Intergenerational Ministries
First Presbyterian Church, San Angelo
Job Description

Our Values: We believe Jesus Christ must be at the center of our lives and making disciples of Jesus at the core of our ministry. We believe identifying and developing gospel-centered leaders is critical for the church, and a great leadership culture is risk-taking, innovative, and organic.

Our Mission: To build a flourishing church that makes disciples of Jesus Christ.

Job Description: The Pastor of Intergenerational Ministries is responsible to implement the values and mission of the church specifically by coordinating an intergenerational vision for all youth, college, young adult, and family ministries. In consultation with the Senior Pastor and in close partnership with the Director of Children's Ministry, the Pastor of Intergenerational Ministry is expected to develop a relational strategy of ministry that connects with and builds intergenerational bridges in all areas of ministry at First Presbyterian.

Specific Position Objectives:

1. Building, developing, and mentoring an intergenerational, gospel centered leadership team to invest in students and families
2. Investing heavily in student and family relationships while also training others to do the same: going where they are, learning who they are, and casting a compelling vision of God's plans for their lives
3. Connecting generations within the church for the purpose of discipleship
4. Challenging and facilitating the church to intentionally place all ages together in worship, service, and learning so that we will be a truly intergenerational church
5. Preaching 10-12 times a year in coordination with Senior Pastor
6. Organizing excellent Middle School, High School, and College gatherings and experiences that help students encounter Jesus and become disciples
7. Partnering with families to help raise their students to become disciples
8. Building strategic relationships with local schools and organizations to reach students and families in our community

Qualifications:

- Passion for Jesus, students, families, and intergenerational ministry
- M.Div. or equivalent preferred
- Ordained pastor in ECO or willingness to change denominations
- Experience building a spiritually flourishing ministry across generations
- Experience leading and developing a flourishing volunteer culture, a leader of leaders
- Great communication skills
- Self-starter
- Team player
- Above reproach character
